SIEPER Group (SG) "TXT" Support is an extension of the support offered by the SRS Online Help Database/s (SRS) and the Telephone Support currently offered by SG, and the Terms & Conditions (T&C) of this support fall under the T&C of the existing support. Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information provided in the SRS, SG assume no liability for any errors or omissions. From time to time SG are asked to provide support & advice outside what is published in the SRS and this information is based on information gathered from the market, but not necessarily validated by the SG Team. This information is provided on an 'as is' basis and SG does not provide any guarantees about the accuracy of this information, nor does SG assume any liability for errors or omissions.
